

FAQs

What will happen if this airspace change leads to a change in controlled airspace?

This ACP is unlikely to lead to a change in controlled airspace within the UK FIR. The airspace in the vicinity of LIFFY is currently Class C from FL35-FL245. If a change in the volume or classification of the airspace is required, this may require re-consultation.